

Casting Call for Calyx the Vampire

Occupation: Apothecary, Healer, Surgeon.

Gender: Non-Binary

Pronouns: They/Them

Attitude: Educated, Gentle, Introverted, Use your inside voice. Occasionally snippy when under stress.

Voice: Thoughtful, technical, precise. Elegant, they're from a high class background.

Accent: General Mild Australian (Ref: Hugh Jackman)

Approximately 100 scripted lines, often openings of daily conversations, character "dates", taunt lines, approving/disapproving lines.

Approximately 50 emotes "Aha!" "Hmm" "Uuuh" "Awesome!" etc, most of these are ad lib vocal emotes, some of them are scripted phrases.

20 or so Battle Yell/scream emotes, these are likely going to be the most vocally abusive and demanding lines.

Additional Promotional lines

Audition lines:

Tauntingly: “ Yawns Is that really the best you can do?”

Embarrassed: “I would greatly appreciate it if we never mentioned that again.”

Busy: “My patient list is longer than I am tall. I've no time for you now.”

Amused: “ soft chuckle You're an amusing one, aren't you.”

Recording will be done by Ghost Moth with a basic portable rig in a set of borrowed office rooms in Blackburn, right next to Blackburn Station, the reason for this is consistency across recordings, and ease of editing.

All editing and post-processing work will be done by Ghost Moth.

This is a paid gig, recording sessions are expected to be between 4 and 7 hours at $250 AUD per hour, with paid breaks to rest the voice, travel costs included, and lunch or dinner covered too.

Recording sessions are flexible and may run late into the night if no other day times are available.

The recording timeline for Calyx is ASAP

Disclaimer: 'Matchmaker: Dungeon Heart' is a sex-positive dating simulator game, you may be asked to voice sexually provocative lines, deliver innuendo, and flirtatious voice acting. However, no explicit sexual content will be included in the game, either vocally or in the visual portrayal of characters.